

THE ROWBOROUGH ESTATE SHOOT

The Rowborough Estate offers one of the finest luxury shooting experiences in the United Kingdom.

With over 30 years of heritage, it combines exceptional driven game shooting with refined hospitality, set across more than 1,500 acres of breathtaking Isle of Wight countryside.

MY TEAM AND I PRIDE OURSELVES ON CONVERTING YOUR SPORTING DREAMS AND ASPIRATIONS TO REALITY.

Adam Royal, Head Gamekeeper at The Rowborough Estate

THE SETTING

Set in the steep valleys of the Island's Downs, Rowborough offers partridges over dry chalk grass valleys in September, followed by mixed pheasant and partridge over mixed broadleaf woodland from October.

Supported by an experienced team of gamekeepers, beaters, and pickers-up with well-trained dogs, every element of the day is thoughtfully arranged to ensure a seamless and thoroughly enjoyable experience.

THE ART OF SHOOTING

The Day Includes:

- Three or four pheasant and/or partridge drives
- Transport between drives across the estate
- Experienced gamekeepers and a full beating team
- Pickers-up with trained dogs
- Field hospitality served throughout the day
- Lunch in the Shoot Lodge

HOSPITALITY

At The Rowborough Estate, every shoot day is carefully choreographed to balance exceptional sport with effortless hospitality, ensuring a seamless and memorable experience from arrival to departure.

ITINERARY

8:45am	Guns arrive to a warm welcome, with tea and coffee served in the Shoot Lodge
9:00am	First and second drives commence, with guests transported in comfort via the Rowborough Gun Bus
11:00am	Traditional elevensees are served in the field
12:00 – 2:00pm	Final drive(s) of the day
2:00pm	Lunch is served in the Shoot Lodge
4:00pm	Departures

Between drives, guests enjoy traditional elevensees served in the field from our dedicated drinks truck.

REFRESHMENTS TYPICALLY INCLUDE:

- Freshly brewed coffee and tea
- Sloe gin and port
- Champagne and sparkling wine
- Local cider and beer
- Homemade cakes and savouries

These moments provide a relaxed opportunity to take in the surrounding countryside, reflect on the morning's sport, and enjoy the camaraderie of the day before returning to the next drive.

EFFORTLESS ACCESS

Despite its sense of seclusion, The Rowborough Estate is easily reached:

- Direct helicopter access from London and the South Coast
- Private aircraft to nearby airfields
- Convenient ferry connections with short onward transfers

Your journey is as considered as your stay.
